Greetings from Hanson

Wow, another successful quilt show under our belt! Just when you think quilts couldn't get more beautiful, our members surprise us with their artistry, creativity, imagination and diversity. I was amazed. Once again, our show displayed our tremendous talent and provided visual beauty to our visitors. We even had a visit from the Brockton Enterprise!

Kudos to the winners, the entrants, and all the hardworking members who pulled together to make our show a success. And to top everything off, there is no better way to spend quality time together and get to know one another even better than we do now!

Enjoy the pictures of the show and don't forget to check our Web site for the photos Rose posted.

- Till

From the Chair

Hello All,

We can all pat ourselves on the back for a lovely quilt show! Everyone really pitched in, and did their job, as Bill Belichek would say! I heard people saying wonderful things about the quilts and the boutique, the raffle quilt and the gift baskets, the silent auction and the vendors! I personally loved the camaraderie among us quilters, having had many delightful conversations over the course of the three days we were together. I loved talking about your quilts! I have to thank all who joined in for the set up and take down. Being in charge of the set up, I had a lot coming at me, but all who were there joined in the frenzy of moving the senior center stuff out and our stuff in! When we finished, the room looked beautiful, especially with our fabulous quilts! Thank you, everyone, for making our show a success!

I will miss you at the bus trip to The Gathering -- I have a wedding to attend in Quincy at 4:00. But enjoy the trip and the show! I am looking forward to making a table runner on November 14. I have three different borders prints to choose from! I do love that our guild sews together. It's a 21st century quilting bee, each of us with separate machines but working on similar projects.

See you then, — Jeanne

Freecycle Table

Sue-Ellen Hewitt, Sally Ann Thornton and Barbara White have taken over the Freecycle Table. Thanks to Gina Stone for her great job with this endeavor! We plan to make a few changes beginning with the November meeting. For November and December we will be accepting and freecycling only quilt books, quilt patterns and quilt magazines.

--Sue-Ellen, Sally and Barbara

Raffle Quilt Winner!

Congratulations to Jo Fruzzetti! Isn't it wonderful that our beautiful raffle quilt got to stay in the Thimbles and Friends family?

Show Thank You

Dear members.

Thanks for all of your hard work for the Thimbles and Friends Quilt Show. "The Wonder of Nature" was a great success....The numbers are not all in yet, but our profit was over $3500. +/-. I have not compared numbers to the past years' shows, but in my heart we had fun....showcased our beautiful quilts ...and met some great people. I would call this meeting our goal!!!!!

Life is a journey...Let us stitch together one smile at a time, one supportive nod at a time... Friendship like a quilt needs care, it has its knots and its crooked lines, but then the comfort gleaned from all the work is art to be cherished forever.

Peace, my guild friends.

Hey when is the Next SHOW????? -Sue

November Workshop

The November workshop is "The Swirl" table runner. You will need to bring the following:

- 72" of border fabric, 10" wide.
- Your sewing machine, thread to match and usual sewing supplies.

Ruler to cut the 60 degree triangle wedges will be supplied. You should be able to finish the top of the runner in less than an hour.

-Sheryl and Janice

Tracey white-gloving at her "Ode to Heart in Hands".
